ALABAMA'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE CARGO OF THE "GOLDEN HORN."-Selma, Ala., is a big cotton point. Selma handled 350,000 bales of last year's crop; and we, here in Charleston, hadn't the first chance to get into Selma for want of a railroad connection. This year we go there "on time," fifty-three hours via the "Rome and Selma Road," one hundred and ninetyeight miles long, which our readers will remember was completed and opened for freight and passengers on the first of this month.

Selma sends to the "Golden Horn" five car loads of cotton, which arrived at the South Carolina Railroad depot last evening, having come over six hundred and six miles of rail news this season. It looks like business, and life our merchants put out their efforts, 150,000 half of the Democratic party, gained ham the lour people have so labored to construct. And without change of cars. We call that the best

At one time, shortly after the announcement of the result had been made, a report was circulated that a mistake had been made in the return from the first precinct of Ward No. 3, and that Mr. Lesesne was elected by fifty-four majority. This report was believed by a great many people, and the consequent embracings, shakings of hands and general gesticulations ndulged in by gentlemen of acknowledged steady habits were scarcely less remarkable than the uncouth demonstrations of the other party. This false hope, however, was soon dispelled, and it is no exaggeration to say that a feeling of despondency and insecurity settled down upon the city, such as had not been felt since the riotous days of '66. We give below some detached incidents of the day.

ATTACK ON THE RESIDENCE OF E. W. MAR-SHALL, ESQ. Yesterday afternoon, shortly after the result of the election had been announced, a party of negroes waited on the Mayor elect to congratulate him on his success. On their way back, whether under the influence of refreshment partaken of at his house, or merely laboring under the general excitement of the day, they made an attack on the residence of ex-Alderman E. W. Marshall, near St. Paul's Church, slamming the shutters of the basement windows to and fro, and threatening further vio-C. SACRED DANCE OF THE NEGRESSES. During the early part of Tuesday night the plank road in Calhoun-street, between East Bay and Washington-street, was made to some fifty or one hundred negresses, who yelled and stamped, jumped, pitched and ranted, as if they were inspired by the devil himself; though in fact they had no other inspiration than the bad whiskey distributed by Pillsbury's agents. The orgies of these female bacchanalians were a great annoyance to the neighborhood, and if they were likely to coutinue would result in the plank road being torn up.

DIRECT LINE TO LIVERPOOL. ENTERTAINMENT ON BOARD THE STEAMSHIP GOL-

DEN HORN. A large number of gentlemen, representing the mercantile and business interest of Charleston, were entertained yes erday aboard the steamship Golden Horn, the pioneer ship of the direct line between this city and Liverpool. Mr. Robert Mure, of the firm of Robert Mure & Co., presided, having on his right Captain Mc-Beath, of the Golden Horn, and on his left H.

P. Walker, her Britannic Majesty's Consul. The dinner was well planned and well served by Tully, and, when the cloth was drawn, Mr. Mure arose and said that the establishment of the direct line had been altogether attributed to his firm. He did not, however, desire to take more credit than was their due, and he would say that the line would not have been lence. Mr. Marshall went out at once and addressed them, and, with the assistance of R. port of the president and directors of the South Carolina Railroad. He showed the assistance he had received at the hands of the directors, and said that, although without their aid, the Golden Horn might have visited our waters, she would not have been then the forerunner of a fleet of first-class steamships. THE ELECTIONS.

Protest of the Citizens.

The following protest was drawn up last night, signed by a large number of citizens, and presented to Mayor Clark. A copy of the protest will be left for signatures in our office this morning. Every citizen who did not sign it last night is requested to do so in the course of to-day : To the Acting Board of Aldermen of the City of Charleston.

The undersigned citizens, electors and cor-Aldermen, held on the tenth day of November, A. D. 1868, and contest the election of a majority of the persons voted for, as irregular illegal and void, on the following grounds:

1. That a la ge number of persons were allewed to vote who were not legally entitled to vote, and that the number of votes so taken and counted greatly exceeded the majority of Gilbert Pillsbury and the majorities of a majority of the Aldermon who were reported to have the largest number of votes.

2. That a large number of persons who were legally entitled to vote were rejected by the managers, and that the number of votes so illegally rejected greatly exceeded the majority of Gilbert Pillsbury and the majorities of a majority of the Aldermen who were reported to have the largest number of votes.

3. That a large number of voters were prevented from voting by Letual force, and that the number of persons so forcibly prevented from voting greatly exceeded the majority of Gilbert Pillsbury and the majorities of a majority of the Aldermon who were reported to have the largest number of votes.

4. That a large number of voters were prevented from voting by threats of v.olence and intimidation; that the special police force illegally appointed by E. W. M. Mackey, the Sheriff of Charleston County, were conspicuons and a five in their participation in such force and intimidation, and that the number of voters so prevented from voting by threats of violence and intimidation exceeded the majority of Gilbert Pellsbury and the majorities of a majority of the Aldermen who were reported to have the largest number of votes 5. That the ballots of a large number of vo ers were taken from them by force and traud as they were about to be deposited and others substituted, and that the number of ballots so changed by force and fraud greatly exceeded the majority of Gilb.rt Palisbury, and the majorities of a majority of the Aldermen who were reported to have the largest number of

7. That the result of the elections has never een ascertained by the Managers of Elections 8. That the reports of the managers of the everal distinct precincts were separately and independently frausmitted to the Mayor. 9. That the ballots, after being counted, were not preserved, but were, in many cases, actually desir wid.

10. That the ballots were carried to the Mayor's office and left there in open boxes. Therefore the undersigned contest the said cecions, and ask that the returns, together with the ballots, shall be examined, and the case investigated by your Board, and that a time and place be appointed by you for the production of the process.

THE ELECTI N SHOULD BE PROTESTED. - The following extract from the extra published by Rev. R. H. Cain yesterlay, is good evidence that the election ought to be protested: "Many of our people violated the great principles which up erlie their own liberties. The violaion of the right of our neighbor to east his vote without interference is the most sacred privilege of an American citizen. We regret, also, there was so much unkindness shown among our colored brethren, who were at the polls intimidating others who differed with them in their views of duty."

SWETT'S SELF-FASTENING WROUGHT IRON BUCKLE TIE!

Cotton Cies.

This TIE can be applied instantaneously to in;

It adjusts itself to the bale, and is so simple that it can be applied by mry one.

> When the lever of the press is raised the tie will fasten itself by the outward pressure of the bale.

The advantage of Boning Cotton with iron is now generally acknowledged, and it is recommen to I by the Board of Underwriters, Steambout and Shipowners. It costs less, makes a more compact bale, and gives greater security than rope. ROBERT MURE & CO.,
